

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS, each year since 1952, Congress has established an annual Day of Prayer on behalf of our nation; and

WHEREAS, the Governor of Wisconsin has traditionally held a prayer breakfast and this year's is at the Italian Community Center in Milwaukee on Thursday, May 1, 2014; and

WHEREAS, a Day of Prayer is a day to remember our brave men and women who are defending our country, liberating the oppressed and preserving our freedoms, to thank them and their families for their sacrifices, and to pray for their safe return; and

WHEREAS, on this day, Wisconsinites of all faiths, ethnicities and political affiliation may take the opportunity to pray, to renew, and to inspire the joy we find in our faith, family, friends, and communities, to remember those who are suffering and facing hardships, and to pray for peace throughout the world; and

WHEREAS, the theme for this 63rd annual Day of Prayer is "One Voice United in Prayer," based on Romans 15:6, which says, "So that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,"

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Scott Walker, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim Thursday, May 1, 2014, as a

DAY OF PRAYER

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all of our citizens.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 30th of April 2014.

SCOTT WALKER
